

There will be practice on Friday April 28 starting at 11 am. Please email fbarf111@gmail.com if needing fresh cattle for practice and both EMCHA/NCHA/AQHA shows Friday evening & Saturday.

The AQHA Sr class will run in the open, the AQHA Jr will run in the 5K Novice and the Aqha Amateur will run in the NonPro. This applies to both days plus on Saturday there will be an additional stand alone AQHA show. This will make a total of 3 chances over the 2 days to earn AQHA points. The entry fee in the AQHA Alliance classes is optional, so only an additional office charge applies and the cattle charge will only apply if you are not entered in the NCHA classes. In the Aqha stand alone class on Saturday the entry is still optional and an office and rerun cattle charge will apply.

There will be a stand alone AQHA youth class on Friday and AQHA Youth on Saturday that will run within the NCHA Youth class.
